Curious about a new name with a long history? Our restaurant has been called Freeman & Harris Cafe, Pete Harris Cafe, Brother's Seafood and now, Orlandeaux's Café. Named after one of the previous owners of the prior generation. The Orlandeaux's Café name honors our father, Orlando Chapman, Sr. who was 4th generation of this family's plethora of Chefs. Our restaurant has been family-owned since its opening in 1921. For nearly a hundred years, we've been passing down recipes and adding new creations to the menu. We'll give you a taste of historic and modern Creole, Soul Food and Southern Cuisines as we continue the legacy of being the Oldest Continuously Operating African American Family Owned Restaurant in the United States!
